Do you wish to help your President in his fight for re-election?
The election is not in the bag, as so many people have been saying. The fight must be carried on until election day in order to re-elect President Roosevelt.
Randall county voters have been asked to contribute $404 to the campaign fund. Only a little more than 10% of this amount has been collected.
The state committee is urging all voters to make a contribution this week, as the money is greatly needed in the campaign. Several states are in the doubtful list, and much work must be done.
The Democratic party cannot get money from Wall Street and the big money interests of the east. These are opposed to the President because he has done so much for the common people of the nation, and has raised the taxes of the big fellows.
If you are able to contribute only 20 cents, do so this week. Randall county should raise at least half of the quota of $404.
Leave your money at the News office, at the Bank or at the Postoffice. But do so this week.

Postoffice Bids Opened; Kansas Firm Is Lowest

Contract Will Be Given Firm in Short Time Is Latest Word on Local Building

Contract for the construction of the new postoffice building in Canyon will probably be let in a few days at Washington to Lundberg & Richter of Liberal, Kansas. This firm is completing the new postoffice at Borger.
Press dispatches from Washington Friday indicated that J. J. Fritch of Dallas was the low bidder, and that only two bids were filed with the treasury department, the other being Robert E. McKee of El Paso.
A supply man from Amarillo contacted Mr. Fritch in Dallas Monday and was notified that the Kansas firm rather than Fritch had been the low bidder, and would secure the contract. The News was given this information yesterday by the dealer who had talked (Continued on last page)

SURVEY TO START

Federal Aid to Be Sought At Once to Build Conservation Dam South of Umbarger

The preliminary survey of the proposed dam south of Umbarger on the Tierra Blanca will likely be started this week.
W. A. Warren and Clyde Warwick met with the Commissioners Court Monday in regard to the survey and an agreement was reached regarding this preliminary work.
An engineer will select the most likely site for the dam, and will then make a survey of the land which would be covered with water should the lake be filled to capacity.
All information possible regarding the proposed dam, such as the amount of water that would be impounded, type of soil at the location, number of acres that would be covered by the lake, uses to which the water could be put, and other information will be assembled in order to present a brief to the government asking for funds with which to build the dam.
The preliminary survey is necessary in order to lay the proposal before federal authorities. If any department of the government is interested, then will come extensive surveys and the assembling of other data as to the necessity of the proposal. A direct act of congress might be necessary should the proposal be sufficiently large to interest the conservation forces of the government.

BUFFS WORKING TO WIN FIFTH VICTORY

Hales Holsteins Winners In Three Large Showings

Fort Worth Centennial Show Added More Win- nings to Noted Herd From Randall

H. B. Hales & Sons have returned home with their Holstein herd after showing at three fairs. The Hales herd is one of the largest in Randall county, and the most noted Holstein herd in the Southwest.
The last show in which the herd competed was at the Texas Centennial Exposition at Fort Worth. The herd was awarded two Junior championships, and lost only two blue ribbons in the classes in which they were shown. Two trophies were added to the long list of winnings of the herd.
Before going to Fort Worth the Hales Holsteins won every honor in this breed at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, and following this sweeping victory, won all blue ribbons at the South Plains Fair at Lubbock.
The Hales boys were winners of all 4-H Club ribbons in the Holstein class. The boys will show their calves at the Texas Centennial at Dallas in November.

S. L. Rushing Died Tuesday at His Home in Floydada

S. L. Rushing, 76, pioneer of West Texas, died Tuesday afternoon at his home near Floydada. He had been sick for several months. Two daughters, Mrs. Felix Pierce and Mrs. E. W. Myers of Canyon have been at his bedside a greater part of the time during the past month.
The family lived in Canyon a few years ago to take advantage of the schools.
Mr. Rushing was an extensive farmer and stockman. He has been interested in a number of banks, and was chairman of the board of directors of the First National Bank of Lockney at the time of his death.

WPA Projects On Campus May Close

Threat Is Made That The State Must Raise Share To Keep the Work Going

WPA projects on W. T. campus were threatened to be closed down today unless funds were available to carry on the work. Senator Clint Small has been trying to secure funds during the special session of the legislature to pay the state's part of these projects, but so far Governor Allred has refused to open up the question of appropriations. The Governor indicated Tuesday that he will submit no further subjects until a tax revenue measure is passed by the legislature.

When called yesterday, A. A. Meredith, district supervisor, stated that the state WPA office at San Antonio had demanded payment on the state's share of these projects, and that it was entirely possible that they would have to shut down pending an appropriation. Mr. Meredith is trying to keep the jobs open until the topping of the streets has been completed, and the bleachers in Buffalo Stadium are finished.

The sewing room was closed down Tuesday because of the lack of funds. Sufficient materials were on hand to run for two days, but the project was ordered discontinued.

CANYON TAKES CELEBRATIONS IN BY STORM

W. T. High School and City Well Represented in Crowd Making Spec- ial Trip Tuesday

Canyon was represented by more than 100 citizens at the Centennial celebrations at Fort Worth and Dallas Tuesday and Wednesday.
When the Santa Fe train pulled out Monday evening 101 persons had bought tickets and occupied two special chair cars which were attached to the regular train. The same cars took the Canyon delegation on to Dallas Wednesday, and will bring them home this morning.

In addition to this large group of citizens and students, several automobiles made the trip to be at Fort Worth and Dallas on Canyon Day.

On the train were 35 students and faculty members from W. T. and the training school, about the same number from the high school, the balance of the delegation being made up of citizens of Canyon.

Dr. J. A. Hill, Supt. Irby Carruth and W. A. Warren, president of the Chamber of Commerce, headed the delegation from Canyon.

Just before noon Monday a group of citizens decided that the high school drum corps should make the trip, and money was raised in a few minutes to take this delegation. The girls in the drum corps performed at both Fort Worth and Dallas, attracting much attention in both towns.

The Canyon train was met in Fort Worth by Centennial officials and photographers from the daily newspapers. Every possible courtesy was shown the Canyon people by the citizens of Fort Worth, and by the officials of the Frontier Celebration.

Senator Clark Was Hard Man to Sign For Homecoming

Securing Bennett Champ Clark as speaker for the Homecoming and Mothers' and Dads' Day, Oct. 31, at W. T., was no easy job, according to Wallace R. Clark, chairman of the faculty committee on lyceums.

"We kept the wires hot for about three weeks getting him," said Clark. "Champ Clark, Jr., as he is known, was one of the keynote speakers at the National Democratic Convention, and it was almost impossible to persuade him he could stay away from Washington three days before the National election."

Hundreds of people will come to Canyon to hear the United States Senator from Missouri, for the Canyon College provides this event free of charge as their annual gift to Northwest Texas. Each year nationally known speakers are chosen. Ruth Bryan Owen and General Hugh Johnson have delighted audiences in 1934 and 1935.

Haley Named In Tarwater Resolu- tion Investigation

J. Evetts Haley and other members of the University of Texas faculty were named in a resolution presented in the legislature Monday by Representative A. B. Tarwater. The resolution seeks to investigate the activity of university professors in their opposition to the New Deal while serving the state.

Haley recently asked for a leave of absence while the campaign was under way and became head of the Jeffersonian Democrats of Texas. This body is opposing the re-election of President Roosevelt.

H. B. Hales and son, R. P., left Tuesday for the Texas Centennial and to attend the National Dairy Show now at Dallas.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

Have you seen the Texas Centennial?

If not, better go before the end of this month. The trip is well worth while.

In many respects the Centennial at Dallas is superior to the Century of Progress at Chicago. The Dallas show is not so large in most phases, but many of the mistakes made at Chicago have been avoided at Dallas until a greater state of perfection has been reached.

Adequate seats is one thing that Dallas learned. There is not a place on the ground—either in the buildings, or outside the buildings, where seats are not available. That feature is very necessary. How the old dogs do bark after a few hours' tramping in and out and 'round and 'round. Seeing the Centennial is far from a picnic. It is real work, unless you happen to have plenty of money and hire a guide to push you around in a comfortable cart.

The commercial exhibits are not so large as those shown at Chicago, but the ones shown are equally as impressive. The General Motors, Ford and Chrysler displays are the largest on the ground, having separate buildings. Cars are not assembled, as was the case at Chicago, where all operations could be seen. No doubt this feature was found to be too expensive.

The railroads of the Southwest have most interesting exhibits. One may go to these exhibits, sit comfortably and see many interesting features, including the lecture tour of the Burlington and the miniature train service of the Santa Fe and others.

The use of motion pictures throughout the exhibit halls is very striking. The talking illustrations are able to hold the attention of the visitors much longer than any other method. Commercial exhibits with these features certainly drew the largest crowds.

The government has a wonderful building, showing and illustrating the many functions which this government is performing. The average citizen has little comprehension of the magnitude of the government's activities until he has an opportunity to visit a government display. The federal government certainly is doing an educational work in taking these exhibits to the various fairs over the nation. Here a composite cross-section of Washington and federal activities may be seen by people who have no opportunity to visit Washington. We missed one feature in this building which we hoped would be repeated from the Chicago fair—the work of criminal eradication. With crime rampant over the nation, no more interesting subject could have been presented to the youth of the nation than that crime does not pay, and that the federal officers are eternally vigilant in their work of stamping out crime and the criminal.

The Hall of State is the central building on the grounds and is a beautiful piece of architecture and furnishings. In view of the fact that the building was opened only last month, and the further fact that the historical materials in the building are rather limited, the future of the building is to be considered. Much money has been spent in murals, depicting the history of Texas. The displays are gorgeous in the beautiful cases. Everything about the building is impressive. The visitor is lead to wonder what the future of this building will be. Of course it is intended as a state museum. Quite naturally there will be a clash of interest and purpose among the museums of the state owing to the recent movement which has been started for the collection of historic materials.

At Austin there is being erected a huge historical building on the campus of the University of Texas. Naturally the University will wish the principal historical materials of the state housed with it. This means a clash between the two main forces at Austin and Dallas.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society is the oldest society in the state and was the first to have a building erected, the state contributing $25,000, while citizens of the Plains have contributed $50,000 or more. While the collection of relics is more or less sectionalized in nature, yet from a geological standpoint this museum promises to be one of the most important in the nation. The collection of Indian relics cannot be surpassed. Since this museum has been erected, others have sprung up in the territory, making a division of interest.

If the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society had a few thousand dollars of the vast amount of money spent on the Dallas building, the exhibits could be well displayed, and would be far superior both in quantity and quality. While regional material for museums may be unlimited, there is a problem as to just how far the state will go in building competing museums.

Yes, we saw the Texas-Oklahoma game Saturday. Texas took advantage of the breaks and won a game. It was nip and tuck throughout the game as to which had the better team. The customers were on their toes throughout the game with the thrills they witnessed.

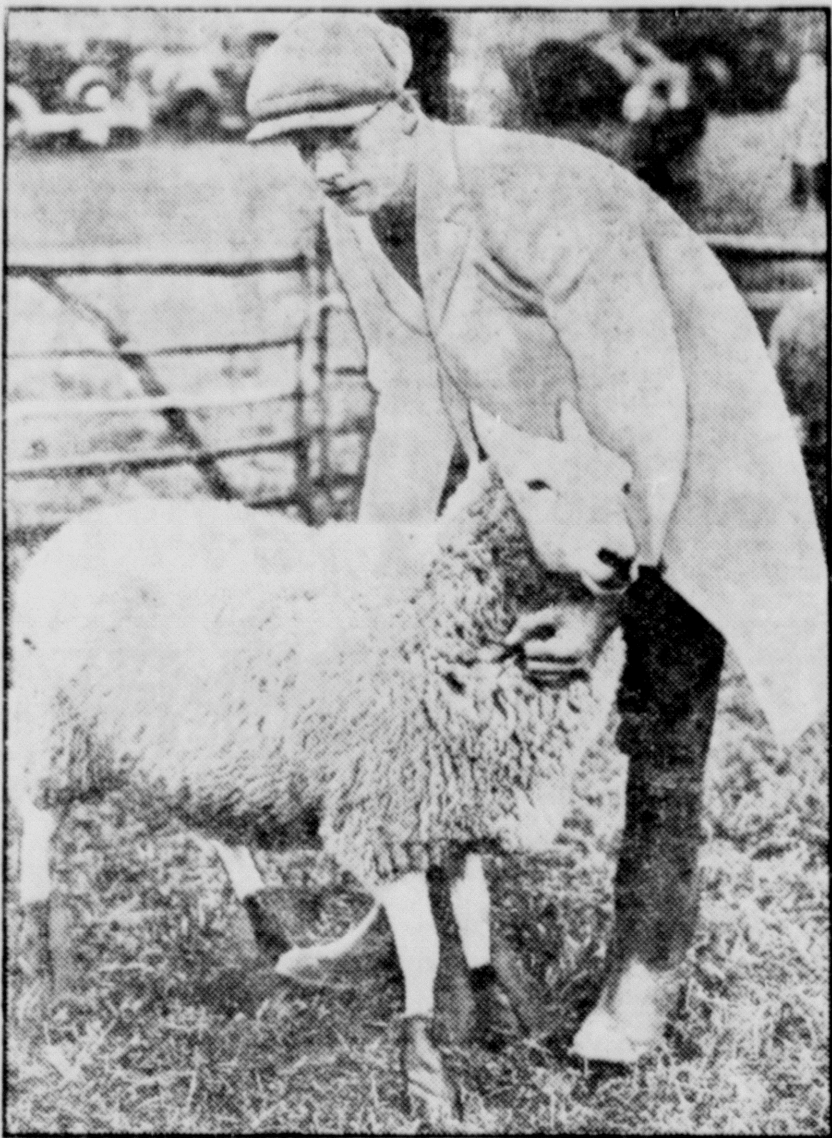

The Oklahoma University Band was certainly a thrilling sight when 180 members marched upon the field. The Texas Band, while not so large in numbers, is a good organization.

What we cannot understand about a football game is why do hundreds of men and women use this opportunity for getting drunk and raising hell in general. In every direction you looked over that vast crowd you could easily spot men pretty well under the influence of liquor, and women with a bottle of whiskey in one hand and a cigarette in the other. Many were carried out after the game, unable to stand up under the booze they had consumed during the game.

Ardent wets say that as much booze was consumed during prohibition days as there is at the present time, but they have no figures to prove the statement. At least you see more drunken men and women today than you did during the unfortunate days of prohibition. (We say unfortunate because the law was on the statute books, and practically no effort was made to enforce it.)

There is so much free entertainment on the Centennial grounds that it is not necessary to enter any of the paid places unless there is something particular you wish to see. Byrd's Little America was exceptionally interesting, especially viewed with Joe Hill, and to have a moment's chat with Mrs. Hill. Yes, Nika is one of the dogs on exhibit.

The Black Forest is another popular place to those who wish to watch the graceful ice skaters perform.

Other places are of interest both from educational and an entertainment standpoint.

Nudists are not drawing the crowds as one might suspect at a place like the Centennial.

Of course the big attraction at Dallas is the Cavalcade of Texas. While the performance is put on in the afternoons, the lighting effects are so beautiful that the show should be witnessed at night. The rapid running series of events in Texas history, supplemented by the lighting effects, make this a most gorgeous entertainment and educational feature. The scenes are true to history, and many native Texans have had their historical memory corrected in this presentation.

The decorations and lights of the entire grounds are gorgeous. In spite of the time the flags have been up, they look clean and new. The paint on the buildings is fresh, with workmen renewing worn places daily. The entire grounds are well kept and attractive. Those going to the Centennial for the first time should see the grounds at night. The spectacle is most impressive.

The Fort Worth show was practically rained out the night we visited the grounds. We were greatly disappointed in not getting to see Casa Manana. The evening was so bad that few of the places opened, and the crowd was most limited.

Indications are that both the Dallas and Fort Worth shows will continue next year if a sufficient number of the commercial firms may be induced to stay. These shows represent a terrific outlay of money, both as to the erection of the exhibits and the continuous performance necessary.

New York and San Francisco are both planning big fairs, and the commercial firms must consider the advertising possibilities of staying in one place for more than one year.

In summary, you have a wide choice for your selection of entertainment at the Centennial.

You may see the fine stock, poultry, birds, etc; you may study history; you may have a glimpse of art and hear an interesting lecture on artists; you may see the latest in automobiles, household furnishings; you may see all sorts of food products, fancy work, things for the home; you may study your government, both state and federal; you may see a football game, take a ride on the latest thriller, see the mid-way shows, buy cheap decorative jewelry, a cane, have your fortune told; you may sit in a comfortable chair and see pictures, listen to the music, view the lights, be thrilled with the decoration; you may eat and drink at scores of places.

All in all, you may have a whale of a big time, and come away much prouder of your state than when you went to the Centennial.

COGENT FACTS RELATIVE TO AMENDMENT NO. 6

Unless our present Constitution is amended, population will continue to be the only yard stick by which representatives are allotted to the various counties.

Thirty states take geography as well as population into consideration in laying out legislative districts.

Between 1920 and 1930 the population of Texas increased 1,161,000. Almost exactly one-third of this increase occurred in the three most populous counties. By actual census figures 69 rural counties showed a decrease in population between 1920 and 1930. Power farming probably accounted for most of this decrease.

The trend of population is unquestionably toward the large cities. If Texas were redistricted today under our present Constitution, Dallas would have ten members and Houston eleven. In 20 or 30 years more this would be doubled. County commissioners' precincts, city commissioners' precincts, judicial districts, school districts and many other districts are not laid out on a population basis but usually with an eye to giving each section of the community adequate representation. Geographic and territorial considerations play an important part in shaping the aforementioned districts and should likewise be considered in laying out representative districts instead of using population alone.

Our forefathers wrote it into the Federal Constitution that the President and Vice-president of the United States should not come from the same state. They opposed concentration of power and Amendment No. 6 does the same thing.

The U. S. Supreme Court in 1932 definitely held that Congressional Districts need not be even approximately equal in population.

A fair and impartial study of the problem clearly shows that Amendment No. 6 should be adopted by the people at the November election.

Barbecue Planned To Be Feature of Homecoming Day

A barbecue and a dance for students and former students have been definitely placed on the Homecoming and Mothers' and Dads' Day program, though details have not been completely worked out.

The dance is in charge of the Pi Omegas, Epsilon Betas, and Ruff Nex. The Homecoming committee will meet again tomorrow to make further arrangements for the occasion.

A talk by U. S. Senator Bennett Champ Clark of Missouri has already been scheduled for the forenoon by the Lyceum Committee. No admission charge will be made to those who attend the lecture.

Forty-five Thousand Trees Now Growing at T-Anchor

Forty-five thousand young trees are now growing in the nursery at the T-Anchor Farm north of the College. These trees were set out by the Texas Highway Department on a 4 1/2 acre plot leased from the Farm by the Department.

The nursery is an experimental proposition with the Highway Department which is making an effort to find a suitable locality for growing trees in the Panhandle-Plains. The nursery was established on the College Farm following a soil analysis which proved highly favorable for the purposes of the Department.

Six varieties of trees, desert willows, Chinese elms, honey locusts, cottonwoods, trees of Paradise, and catalpas were selected for the experiment. Work was begun on this project last spring. The trees were extensively irrigated during the last summer.

Several other improvement projects have been completed during the last few months, and others are in progress.

Remodeling of the South House includes new floors, new wallpaper, and the house is being repainted.

Electric refrigeration, a complete water system, a sewage system which meets the requirements set by the Federal government, and facilities for laundry service help to make the Farm a highly satisfactory place for students to live who are majoring in agriculture.

A covered Chevrolet truck is used to transport the boys to and from classes at the College in all kinds of weather.

Forty men are living at the T-Anchor and operate a dairy which supplies milk to Cousins Hall, Stafford Hall, and Randall Hall, the three dormitories of the campus.

As a part of a beautification project, lawns have been started at each of the residences and 120 young trees have been set out along the highway in front of the Farm buildings.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Martin Reviews Professional Football's Steady Growth, Seeing a Secure Future and Real Place for It in the Sports Scene

BY PHILIP MARTIN

IF the life story of professional football, from its birth in Latrobe, Pa., in 1895 up to the present season, were to be recorded in the form of a graph, the curve would describe a gentle upward swing.

There has been nothing wildly spectacular about the growth in popularity of the paid grid-ders, but as the years pass by it becomes increasingly apparent that the sport is here to stay.

It lacks, of course, the brilliant coloring of collegiate football, but the pro game has carved its own niche in the sports world.

Fans who do not own a college degree find an outlet for civic pride in this gridiron division. Inter-city rivalry approached the boiling point back in the days when the center of pro football activity gravitated from Latrobe, Pa., to Ohio.

During this period the Canton Bulldogs, Massillon Tigers, Columbus Panhandles, Dayton Triangles, and Akron Indians were considered the very best outfits in the nation.

SOME of football's historic figures, including Knute Rockne and Jim Thorpe, took a whirl at the pro game at that time. It was the custom of club owners to sign a couple of players who had made national reputations on collegiate fields and surround them with the best available local gridders. Townspeople supported the teams loyally and vociferously.

Professional football has grown up since then, however, and now is conducted along the lines of major league baseball. Teams today are made up mostly of big names from leading universities. A few of the best pro gridders, however, are from "cow" colleges.

The coaching is on par with the playing talent. The athletes undergo a period of intensive training previous to the season's opening, just as do their professional baseball brethren. And, as on the diamond, the individual is subordinated.

Here are two of the men largely responsible for the healthy growth of professional football in the United States. Red Grange, left, famous old Illinois back, is seen as he appeared in his last season of competition with the Chicago Bears. Now he's helping coach and manage the same team. Joe Carr, above, has been president of the National Professional Football League since its organization.

PRO football put on its long trousers in 1921 with the organization of the National League. There has been but one president of the circuit since that date and he is Joe Carr, former manager of the Columbus Panhandles, and one of the real veterans of the game.

Franchises shifted rapidly during the first few years, teams being removed from smaller cities to more populous points. Today but three charter members are listed, the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Chicago Cardinals.

The American League, a new pro grid circuit, is in the field this year. This is the second attempt to bring another major league into being, a league of the same name having been formed in 1926. It was the collapse of the first American League which led to the expansion of the National League, shaping it into its present form.

The entry of Red Grange of Illinois and Ernie Nevers of Stanford—especially the former—gave the sport its greatest boost. Fans who had read of the "Gallop of Ghost" and the "Blond Thunderbolt" in the newspapers clamored to see them when opportunity presented itself.

They came, they saw, and they were conquered by professional football, and since then the list of patrons has grown yearly.

Watkins Throws Fans Into Uproar With 58-Yard Run

Perfect Interference
Permits Second
Score

Bedlam enveloped University Stadium in Albuquerque, N. M., Saturday, when Foster Watkins, rabbit-footed Buff left halfback, broke loose in the final 32 seconds of play behind prodigious interference to scamper 58 yards for the score that handed the West Texas State College a 13-7 win over the University of New Mexico.

For 59 minutes the two clubs had exchanged licks virtually on even terms, and the game had assumed the aspect of a 7-7 deadlock. The first break came when a Lobo 15 yard penalty placed the ball on the 36 yard line. Dow and Slack pitched in to carry it to the memorable 42 yard line when the "perfect play" was initiated. The shift to the right threw Watkins in the receiving position. Behind a swarm of interferers he sailed through right tackle, and pranced into the broken field. On the 36 he nearly lost his footing, and 5,000 spectators gasped as he regained his balance to scoot for pay dirt. He was caught from behind as he crossed the final chalk mark, but his momentum carried him into the end-zone. Dow's attempted conversion was wide.

The Lobos counted first in the opening canto when Bassett, stocky halfback, opened a barricade of forwards to Echobawk who caught his first to strut to the 14 yard line. Two plays later this combination clicked again when Echobawk made a remarkable catch in the end zone. Fellis, a substitute kicked for the extra point.

Taking to the air, the Buffs retaliated in the second quarter when Watkins heaved to Waggoner who strained to make the snag and then nonchalantly plodded to the 5 yard line where he was pushed out of bounds. The play was good for 46 yards. In four running plays the Buffs scored when Conway Butler, substitute for Dow, hammered across from the one yard line. Watkins converted to tie the score.

Guards Hinger and Fields were the victims of a battery of line plunges, and sustained the gaff in such a manner as to be selected as the game's outstanding linemen. Line backers Champion and Captain Jackson turned in one of the most rugged performances of the season. The conservative Johnson consistently assisted tackles Walling and Harp in stopping the Lobo thrusts for numerous losses.

The punting of Thomas and Champion was the best on the register thus far. Early in the fourth quarter one of Thomas' punts carried 68 yards in the air and landed in the end zone. They kicked eight times for an average of 49 yards, while Dwyer and Keithley of the Lobos punted 11 times for a 39 yard average.

Outstanding players for the New Mexicans were the shifty-running Walter Clark, halfback, and the magnificent defensive lanky end, George Day.

Frosh Gridsters Will Pit Strength Against Picadors

The Freshmen eleven of West Texas State will march on parade for the initial conflict of the year against Berl Huffman's Texas Tech Picadors Saturday night in Buffalo Stadium.

Ernest Schur, end from Vernon, and smallest member of Coach Bob Cox's squad, was unanimously selected as captain of the 1936 Yearlings last week.

A series of scrimmages have filled the program for the husky and enthusiastic Yearlings during the previous week to give the neophytes their first offensive drills.

The Picadors are boasting one of the strongest first year elevens in their history, and will invade Buffalo Stadium Saturday with the intention of duplicating the 10-7 defeat handed the freshmen last year.

The 15 to 0 triumph over an A. C. C. B. squad Sept. 25 by the Huffman eleven will give them a slight advantage in experience over the W. T. beginners, since the coming fray will be the opener for the Yearlings.

Exhibit of Pictures American Artists to Be Opened Friday

A group of twelve pictures selected for the first exhibit of Living American Art, Inc., of New York City will open in the Mary E. Hudspeth Room of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, Friday. Special interest attaches to this exhibit because it is probably the most ambitious venture ever undertaken for wide-spread distribution in America of works of fine art. By means of the collotype process, reproductions have been made of selected American paintings. The process is absolutely faithful in every detail and is endorsed by experts as the best now known.

Royalties from the sale of the prints will be paid to the artists themselves, regardless of the current ownership of the original. This movement has excited great interest in art circles throughout the world for it represents a new and much needed source of income for the artists. The legal right of artists to such royalties has never been clearly settled, but it is expected that the Living American Art plan will establish this right.

The group of twelve pictures included in this showing is the first of four groups to be exhibited by Living American Art during the year. Forty-eight pictures are selected each year for reproduction. In every instance the painters are alive and working in this country. The jury which selects these pictures includes three well known artists, Louis Bouche, Alexander Brock and Adolf Dehn, and Prof. Hughes Means of New York University.

This show will open simultaneously at 250 points throughout the country. It represents the most ambitious plan ever undertaken to make art available to the average citizen and to make American artists self-sustaining.

The exhibit will be open to the public from Oct. 16 to Nov. 16, daily from nine o'clock a. m. to six o'clock p. m., excepting the noon hour from 12 o'clock to 1.30.

VOL. NO. 11.

CANYON, TEXAS, OCTOBER 15, 1936.

NUMBER 5

Cactus
Cal

Hi ya, folks!
There's two organizations that are to be complimented this week. First of all, I want to mention the way the Eagles surprised Perryton, 13-12. Although it was tough luck that Perryton got the big end of the score, I know, though I wasn't there, that them Eagles shore played a swell game.

I guess them Drum Corps girls are back from the Centennial by now. I hope you gals had a good time. The local Chamber of Commerce shore has a vote of thanks from the ones in the Corps.

I hear Canyon High has two or three good dancers. Don't grow too many corns.

Certain girls like Lonetta O'Dell and a few other Fish and sub-Fish shore gave some yelps when the junior football team played last Saturday. I think it was because of one or two certain boys.

Marie found out that eyelashes play a big part in her love life. Just ask Marie! And another thing about couples: Glen Burrus has another heart-throb; her name starts with a "S"—

Mr. Stephenson shore knows how to kick a football, so Joe Gill and a few others have found out.

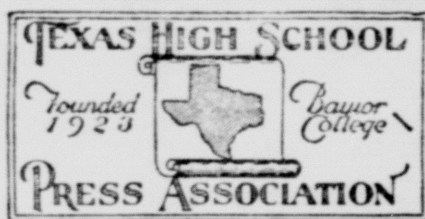

Anne Maxwell says, "I was the cream of the crop at the dance."

Well, Eagles, you got a game that's worth thinking about in front of you; so beat those Mustangs Friday.

Boom! Boom!
What's coming?
Mustangs.

Come on; if we Mustang (ie), we'll go over the top.

THINK BEFORE

Students, what do you think the president of your Student Council organization should stand for and represent? Personality and leadership are two very important qualifications for a good president to have.

Personality takes in such things as kindness, co-operation, and friendliness, which help to win success. Leadership is considered as the ability to lead the group in an interesting and beneficial way. There are many things to consider in your voting. One should not vote for his or her best friend, but for the one that is best qualified for the position. You would not like to have someone lead you the entire year that did not have the qualifications to make an effective president.

So, students, in choosing someone to fill this important position, consider all of the qualifications necessary for a good leader.

ASSEMBLY OR PEP SQUAD?

Does the pep squad make as much noise as do the students of Canyon High School when they are entering the assemblies? We sound as though we were yelling at a ball game when the Eagles are making a touchdown; and does Mr. Pope have a hard time making his voice sound over ours?

When we have class meetings, we do not all give our attention to our presidents and sponsors who are leading us.

Let us all move to be more courteous and willing to follow recognized rules of conduct.

Oranges, watermelons and lemons are not fruit. Neither are they vegetables.

Believe it or not, they are berries.—Ripley's Believe It or Not Omnibus.

C. of C. Sends Drum Corps
To Centennial At Ft. WorthPerryton Rangers
Oust Eagles 13-12

The Perryton Rangers defeated the Canyon Eagles 13 to 12 in the breath-taking game of the season last Friday afternoon on Ranger soil.

Kicking off to the Rangers, the Eagles started the game with perfect teamwork. The Rangers made the first tally in the first part of the game. The play was a fake hide-out pass. The try for point was good.

Receiving the kick, the Eagles failed to make ten yards in four downs. The punt was blocked but was recovered with a twenty yard gain. Again they failed to make the mile and again the punt was blocked and recovered on the twenty-yard line. Three downs brought them to the twelve-yard line. A pass to Ray Ford Rusk was good for six points. Drummond failed to make the extra point.

Starting the second half of the game, the Eagles received the kick. They returned it to the Rangers' thirty-five yard line, where a pass was intercepted. The Rangers rode down to the Eagles' thirty-five yard marker.

A pass was intercepted by D. A. Butler on the twenty-yard line. Rusk and C. L. Drummond cut the Rangers down, who were about to seize the ball carrier. Again and again the Rangers were whipped down before they could have a shot at him. Eighty long yards were gained, as well as six more points for Coach Hutto. Again Drummond missed the extra point.

The Eagles held the Rangers until the last four minutes of the battle. After charging to the twelve-yard spot, the Rangers made their second tally; the try for an extra point was a failure. This made the score 13 to 12 at the finish.

The Rangers were highly favored to completely stamp out the Eagles, but they failed to do so.

Higher, Higher,
Still Higher

"Ah, ah, ah!"
"Higher, higher, higher, higher."
"Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah!"
"That's fine; now just keep doing that so your voice will develop." Thus the Public Speaking class is carried on.

"Renna Beth, you will please give us a pantomime, pretending you are getting ready for a date, and Carl, you pretend you are the boy."

Renna Beth combs her hair, manicures her nails, and primpers for about thirty minutes; then Carl combs his hair and puts a tie on in about two minutes, and the couple are off.

HAZEL BENTON GIVEN
FAREWELL PARTY

A farewell party was given Hazel Benton Saturday evening by the high school class of the Presbyterian Church.

After a short service, the guests played monopoly and a baseball game.

Eleven people attended this party. They were Kate and Overton Donnell, Marjorie Wilkenson, Shirley and Lillian Tate, Hazel Benton, Sarah Thompson, Sam and Nelson Robinson, Ida Martha Pierle, and Wanda Brock.

The refreshments served were pineapple and lemonade.

ASSEMBLY DISCUSSES STUDENT COUNCIL

Assembly was called by Supt. I. B. Carruth, Wednesday, Oct. 7, in the auditorium. The appointing of students for the Student Council was begun. Mr. Gerald Brown, who has charge of the Student Council election, explained the system which the students are supposed to follow.

The seniors and juniors are the two parties whose candidates will run for the presidency. The three lower classes are the "uneducated people."

All of the classes are allowed to have two representatives in the council.

Law Discussed By Home Ec. Club

Parliamentary law and the laws of the constitution were topics discussed by the Home Economics Club at its meeting last Wednesday evening. The meeting was held in the Home Economics room of the Canyon High School.

Edrie McNeill was elected song leader and Mary Bourn historian at the short business session. The new committees were voted on. The club will follow parliamentary law during the year. The constitution of the club was accepted.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

Your mind will not take care of itself. Will-power, decision, resourcefulness, initiative, courage—these qualities are not gifts, but results. Anyone of them can be developed by effort, just as muscles can be developed by exercise.

It's all right for charity to begin at home, but it ought not end there.

Sometimes the finishing touch of a long friendship is a touch for a loan.

Conservatives and Liberals To Hold
Conventions

An annual affair has taken on new interest and excitement this year, for a supposedly better plan than has been followed before in electing the president of the Student Council has been proposed by Mr. Gerald Brown, teacher of civics and history, and has been accepted by the student body in general.

Two parties, the Liberals and the Conservatives, have been made from the junior and the senior classes. These parties will have national conventions in assemblies next Monday and Wednesday, when they will elect their candidates to run for the presidency. Liberal nominees are Sherman R. Higdon, sports editor of the Eagle's Tale and manager of the Eagles; Kate Eileen Donnell, president of the Pep Squad and a member of "The Carolettes," girls' quartette; and Melvin Calliham, center for the Eagles and active in debate. Conservative nominees are C. L. Drummond, managing editor of the Eagle's Tale and quarterback for the Eagles; Billy Louise Greenfield, vice-president of the Pep Squad and secretary to the Home Economics Club; Mildred Shuman, president of the Home Economics Club and active in debate.

The sophomores, freshmen, and seventh grade are to be the "uneducated masses," whose vote will be influenced by political speeches. Their votes will be cast on the system of library numbers; that is, if they have paid their library fees, they may vote.

This system, it is thought, will create more interest in the election and will probably be the best method used so far in electing the Council president.

Gridiron Gossip

By Bulldog

If you had been down in the dressing room last week, you would have heard "Bot" Rusk and several other boys on the squad saying over and over, "185-pound average."

Then you would have seen "Bot" go over and say to Hershel, "Say, did you know that the Perryton team has a better average than the Buffaloes?"

Well, that fact didn't scare the players a bit, because they believed in the old saying that "The bigger they come, the harder they fall."

I'm not certain, but I think it was "Dodo" Brasuel who remarked, "Hershel Burrus sure had lots of 'guts' going into that game with a broken nose, didn't he?"

At the depot Friday night, you would have thought the Pep Squad girls didn't know how to read a telegram, by the way they looked when they saw the words, "Eagles really won." Mary Collins was heard to ask, "What does that mean?" Well, they found out after the Eagles came in later that same night.

Arthur Sherman traveled 20,000 miles from Liberia to attend the Montana School of Mines. Grandpa would have had to walk it every day through deep snow.

Morris Tells Tale
to Journalist

"I like to coach basketball and do other work with boys," said Mr. Milton Morris, who teaches vocational agriculture and bookkeeping in the high school and is also basketball coach.

Mr. Morris graduated from Perryton High School in 1929. In 1933, he received the bachelor of science degree from West Texas State Teachers College, with a major in agriculture and biology. During his college career, he played football and basketball and was active in track. Part of one year he coached basketball in the training school.

For two years after receiving his degree, he coached basketball at Friona, Texas, his team winning the district one year. Last February he resigned his position and went to Texas College of Arts and Industries at Kingsville, where he received a bachelor of science degree in agriculture, which gave him the Smith-Hughes certificate.

Study Club Meets
to Make Plans

"The Home and the Community" was the subject for discussion in the Parent Education Study Club which met for the first time this year last Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8, in the music room of the grade school building.

The course of study was outlined to last through December. On the second Thursday in each month, the club will meet in the music room to discuss the problems which are related to the home and the school.

Superintendent I. B. Carruth will have charge of the November meeting. National Education Week will be observed, and a unit of work will be presented by the grade children.

Mrs. Harry Brown will talk on "How to Spend Christmas in a More Profitable Way" at the December meeting. There will be group singing of Christmas carols and a few selections by the Mother Singers.

Mrs. Ray Campbell, chairman of the club, urges everyone to be present whether he is a parent or not.

Rev. Craig Speaks
In Assembly

"Although the Bible is the oldest book we have, it is still the best seller in the world," said the Reverend Earl Craig of the Church of Christ when he spoke to the student body Monday morning in assembly.

Among other facts about the Bible, the speaker mentioned that it is a complete library of sixty-six books, by forty authors. In support of the divinity of the Bible, he said that it is the only book that claims for itself Divine inspiration; that it tells both the good and the bad about its characters; and that it predicted scientific truths long before they were discovered by man.

The speaker concluded with "Be ye doers of the word and not hearers only."

HOME SURVEY BLANKS
GIVEN TO PUPILS

Home survey blanks were distributed to the pupils of Canyon High School last week as a part of the program of Fire Prevention Week. The children were asked to inspect their homes and then fill out the blanks.

Records show that Canyon has had an unusually small number of fires during the last two years. In order to preserve this showing, it is the duty of every citizen to take all possible precautions against fire.

Authorities state that carelessness is the most common cause of fires. Such factors as accumulated trash, defective electric wiring, explosives used in cleaning garments, or leaky gas hose should be checked and remedied immediately.

Eagles and Mustangs Will
Tangle At Claude FridayCalliham Wins
Trip To Texas
Centennial

Melvin Calliham, senior, has been announced as the winner of the recent essay contest sponsored by the West Texas Creamery Improvement Association for District 8 of the Future Farmers of America and was awarded a trip to the Texas Centennial at Dallas. The award was made Thursday by Mr. J. P. Chipell, teacher-trainer at Texas Technological College of Lubbock.

Calliham, who left Sunday night, spent three days at the exposition, during which time he attended the National Dairy Show, now in session there. He is enrolled in the vocational agriculture class taught by Mr. Milton Morris. Before coming to Canyon, he was a pupil of Dr. George Groat at Conway.

J. D. Breitling, sophomore, received honorable mention for his essay. The essays were written on "Production of Quality Cream." All expenses of the winner's trip were paid by the West Texas Creamery Improvement Association.

In making the award, Mr. Chipell stated, "I think that Melvin won because of his references, his interest in the subject, and his means of convincing the readers, which especially appealed to the judges."

Pokes And No
Returns

"Pokes and double pokes." These are some of the quotations the boys have been using since "Bot" and Herbert have their new yellow shoes.

Well, well, well. How the styles do change! Brown, black, and white shoes look very nice for school wear—but when it comes to wearing yellow shoes, checked or polka-dot ties, and pastel colored shirts, it's too much.

And don't get a new hair cut (if your folks'll let it be) unless you want this new craze shouted in your ear with a heavy fist pounding on your arm.

In fact, anything new—shirts, pants, hats, socks, or any other new duds—will cause you to get hit unless—hah!—knew there was some way out—unless you shout "Double returns" (if your opponents haven't already shouted, "No returns"), and you get the privilege of "bopping" them four times. They'll wish they hadn't noticed your new something or other; and so it is "pokes" and "double pokes."

BOOK REVIEW

Those who have read "Death Comes to the Archbishop" will also be interested in another of Willa Cather's delightful novels, "Shadows on the Rock."

In this book, the lives of the French trappers in the first colonies in Canada are contrasted with those of other types of Frenchmen. The trapper loved Canada and made it his home for life, but others lived with the desire to return to France and were unsuccessful. This colony was absolutely isolated from everyone else throughout the winter months. A love story is also woven into the book.

The Eagles will tangle with Claude next Friday afternoon on the opponent's soil.

The Eagles have been defeated twice this season. They defeated Dimmitt 26-0, but were defeated 12-13 by Perryton, who is supposed to have a much superior team than that of the Eagles, and outweigh them from 20 to 30 pounds per man. Claude was also defeated by the Panhandle Panthers, but only 7-19.

Sherman Higdon, Eagle manager, who has seen the Eagles in all the games this year, and who has watched the practice, stated, "Speaking for the athletes and myself, I can say we're proud of the hustle that almost won at Perryton, and I'm sure that the same hustle will take Claude under."

SPANISH CLASS OBSERVES
COLUMBUS DAY

Pictures of Columbus and poems and descriptions of his voyages, in both Spanish and English, were used for the bulletin board in the Spanish class Monday, Oct. 12, in honor of Columbus Day. The Spanish class recently compiled a mimeograph song book, containing both popular and Spanish songs in the Spanish tongue. The book is bound in red paper, decorated with a Spanish design.

La Tertulia, the Spanish club, will hold its regular meeting Friday, at which time a program of songs, stories, and piano solos will be given. Billy Black is chairman of the program committee.

The astonishing story of GULFPRIDE

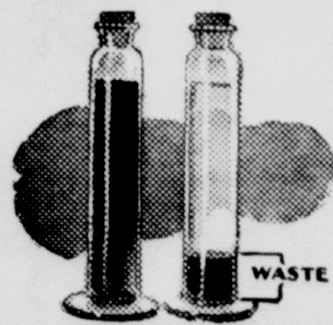

THE WORLD'S FINEST MOTOR OIL

THE results you get from GULFPRIDE OIL can be obtained from no other motor oil in the world!

For only GULFPRIDE is made from choice Pennsylvania crude . . . refined to equal the best motor oils on the market . . . and then further refined by Gulf's exclusive Alchlor process.

This process was developed by Gulf after 15 years of scientific research—the kind of painstaking research that is behind every Gulf product.

Read the facts below. Then replace your summer-worn oil with GULFPRIDE now. At all Gulf dealers.

(Left)

BEATING THE BEST. No other process refines oil so thoroughly as Gulf's Alchlor process. When a blend of 6 of the finest Pennsylvania motor oils—already highly refined—was put through this process, 20% waste came out. Proof that the Alchlor process makes GULFPRIDE finer than the finest other Pennsylvania oils.

A GULFPRIDE USER drove from Bennington, Vt. to Portland, Ore., averaging 400 miles a day. He did not add a single drop of oil. An unusual record, yes. But expect GULFPRIDE to take you farther before you need a quart than any other oil you ever used.

EASTERN AIR LINES' Great Silver Fleet uses GULFPRIDE only in every one of its 21 mighty planes. No other oil will do, because no other oil can match GULFPRIDE—the world's finest motor oil—for safety, stamina, and low cost per mile!

Church of Christ Building Addition House of Worship

Members of the Church of Christ are building an addition 30x54 feet to the church on Third Avenue. This addition practically doubles the capacity of the building.

Earl L. Craig, minister of the Church, states that the work is being done by members of the congregation. The building will be finished with stucco like the first unit which was completed several years ago.

Johnston Writes of His Discoveries in Panhandle Projects

Prof. C. Stuart Johnston, head of the department of Archaeology and Paleontology of W. T., has recently had two articles accepted by the American Midland Naturalist, which is published by Notre Dame University. Titles of his articles are "Tracks from the Pliocene of West Texas," and "A Skull of Teleoceras Possiger Cope from the Clarendon Beds of Donley County." The second paper has to do with the finest rhinoceros skull that has ever been discovered in the Panhandle. This skull is now exhibited in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum.

Mrs. Peter J. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyers of Berger, Mrs. Milo Yale of Toronto, Iowa, and Fred Witte of Wheatland, Iowa, returned Sunday from a trip to the Carlsbad Cavern. Mrs. Yale and Mr. Witte are sister and brother of Mrs. Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt left Saturday evening for Dallas where they viewed the Centennial over the week end.

Bufs Working

(Continued from page one) game, and although the Durant team has two defeats against one win for the season, the aggregation is rated as one of the best in Oklahoma.

Veteran Starters

The Sooner starting lineup is lettermen. Last year, Wylie, a diminutive halfback, figured in their 13-7 victory over the Buffaloes. Wylie returns this year with more seasoning and still adept at his running elusiveness. In Otto Smith, a Haskell Indian transfer, the Buffaloes claim to have a triple threat—second to none in their conference. He collaborates with Quarterback Art Small to form a secondary of much repute. A sophomore fullback, Sivells is the spearhead of the plunging formation.

Averaging 192 pounds, the forward line appears to be a constellation of many stars. Martin and Chesser are two stellar pass snatchers with the ability to handle their end of the business. In 198-pound Marsh and 203-pound Cummings, the Oklahoma Teachers have a duet of tackles that are towers of strength with special potency on the defense. Lemonds and Pritchard, two veteran guards, will doubtless be utilized as starters. 170-pound Byrom is the lightest of the regulars, but his accurate passes from center makes him the logical choice for the coveted berth.

Need Dry Field

At the Buffalo camp, practice continued with renewed vigor Monday. In their long scrimmage against the freshman troops, Coaches Baggett and May sent in their reserves rather prolifically. In their four victories this year the Bufs have had a dry field and will probably be at a loss if they are compelled to perform on a wet field.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The service of evening worship will be conducted at All Saints Episcopal Chapel Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. You are welcome.

Harris M. Cook Compares Rotary Other Activities

Harris M. Cook, chairman of the Rotary Information Committee, discussed Rotary and its relation to the public at the luncheon Tuesday.

While somewhat like the church in its aims and objects, it is very different. Both have creeds; membership in the church is open, while it is selective in Rotary; church finances are free-will, but in Rotary finances are equalized; both have community service as a goal, but are carried on in a different manner. Rotary is the adjunct to the church rather than separate from the church.

Rotary is different from a Chamber of Commerce in that it selects its members. The chamber seeks to increase business; Rotary seeks to improve the business man.

Mr. Cook called attention to four eras in this nation: 1st, Nobody be damned; 2nd, The public be damned; 3rd The railroads be damned; the 4th and present era, Everybody be damned.

Benefits of Rotary were summed up as follows: Acquaintance with men of other business and professional lines; a social and spiritual field of activity; good fellowship; friendship; an understanding of the various problems in the community and in the world; an opportunity to be of benefit to society; to better realize that ones own profession or business is worth something to society.

Visitors present were: Irving Tolzien, A. A. Meredith, H. T. Neely, all of Amarillo; J. T. Morrow of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Craig spent last week in Dallas visiting with friends and attending the Centennial.

R. P. Hales returned home Monday from Ft. Worth with the Hales Holstein herd.

Centennial Trip

The Canyon booth of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce building. Mrs. Tommie Montfort, representing W. T., and Miss Annie Ruth Eastus, representing the public school, distributed the Courier and answered questions regarding Canyon. The Canyon booth is immediately in front of the Will Rogers exhibit, which attracts more attention than anything on the grounds at Fort Worth. The Canyon booth is decorated with a number of scenes from the Palo Duro State Park, with the Museum building in the center.

At Dallas the delegation received special notice from the officials and were extended every courtesy. A special Canyon program was put on over the broadcasting system which reaches every part of the grounds. This feature was arranged by W. T. Taylor, who recently came from Dallas to have charge of concessions at the Palo Duro State Park.

The Canyon delegation was one of the largest of the year to attend the Centennial celebrations traveling more than 400 miles. For this reason special courtesies were accorded the visitors.

Tierra Blanca

rillo was interested in the establishment of all the lakes possible in the Panhandle. These projects add greatly to the attractiveness of the entire Panhandle and will do much to bring more people to the area. Mr. Saunders stated that a government engineer while visiting in the Panhandle last year had inspected the Tierra Blanca and believed that a dam near Umbarger would be acceptable as a government project under conservation.

Among those who visited in Dallas over the week end were Misses Mary E. Hudspeth, Helen White Moore, Tennessee Malone, and Mrs. Tommie Montfort.

"Flying Auto" Lands in Washington

Officials of the U. S. Department of Commerce and bystanders turned out in Washington the other day to welcome the "Flying Auto," shown above after it landed on a grassy plot in the business district, and, in fact, before it alighted to chug along Pennsylvania avenue. Developed in Philadelphia for the Bureau of Air Commerce, the autogiro has rotor wings which can be folded back, allowing it to be driven like an automobile when not in flight.

Postoffice Bids

The amount of the Lundberg & Richter bid is not known. Fritch bid $57,300, the same as the bid he put in on August 21 when the first bids were opened. Robert E. McKee of El Paso put in a bid of $64,700.

According to the information secured yesterday the government will close a deal for the construction and work should be started within 30 days.

Ten different contractors had secured information regarding the building, and the citizens of Canyon were greatly surprised when the first word was received that only two contractors had filed bids.

W. P. A. Project

Tuesday. It was due last week, but failed to run on scheduled time.

Topping was started on Fourth Avenue yesterday. This will require only a few days. After this job is completed and should WPA shut down the campus jobs, there will be no WPA jobs in operation in the county.

Plans are being drawn for paving 68 blocks more in Canyon, and plans are also being drawn for improvements at the public schools, but neither of these are ready for submission.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Miss Ocie Sanders, of the Bible Department of W. T., will speak at the Christian Church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Her subject will be "The Paradoxical Nature of Christianity: Its Timeliness and Timelessness."

Sunday School at 9:45. Christian Endeavor at 6:30.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walker returned Saturday from their vacation which was spent in Dallas and Fort Worth.

America's Tallest Corn in 1936?

When it comes to raising corn, G. A. Huckstep of Cape Girardeau county, Mo., refuses to take a back seat for Iowans. Huckstep, shown above with this year's sample stalk, 15 feet 2 inches in height, claims credit for America's tallest corn in 1936. His land yielded 100 bushels an acre despite a severe midsummer drouth.
